

Michael Brown

Born: February 10, 1955

Education

1977 - Bachelor of Fine Arts at The University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, 1977, while at the University, Brown was honored as a North Carolina Fellow. Brown also served on the citizens' advisory board for the construction of the new arts wing at Chapel Hill High School.

1977-79 - Fine Arts Center, Provincetown, Mass, 1977-79. A two year fellowship to study and paint. Served as a Fellows representative to the center's executive committee. Organized drawing and painting classes for fellows and residents.

Professional Experience

Michael Brown has been working as a professional artist for 33 years.

Teaching

- Meredith College, 1988-1998.
- The Spence School for Girls, New York City, 1981-85. Primary and secondary level art teacher at one of NY's most prestigious private schools. Courses included drawing and painting
- The Guggenheim Museum of New York, 1979-81. Designed and implemented an art program for 60 disadvantaged and challenged students.
- Hudson Guild Community Center in association with St. Vincent's Hospital-Department of Psychiatry, 1979-81. Designed and oversaw a creative workshop program for children and an evening program for adults under a joint project of the hospital and the community center.
- Governor's School of NC, 1976 Artist in Residence. Drawing and painting classes for gifted high school students.